

Source: Bristol Evening Post
Section: Main
Date: Friday, August 06, 2004
Edition: Main
Circ: 58,862
Client: DLA
Brief: Women in Property

Page: 40
Area: 23.95 sq. cm

Skyline in focus

THE SOUTH West branch of the Association of Women in Property is holding a debate about the potential impact of tall buildings on the skylines of Bristol and other South West cities.

The event next Thursday runs from midday until 2pm at the offices of Osborne Clarke at Temple Quay, Bristol.

The cost is £15 for non-members and £9.50 of members of the Association of Women in Property.

Contact Louise Garcia on 0117 917 3000 for further information.